The Chief of Police will issue a Precious Metals or Stones Dealer License to an applicant for a specific business, location, and town or city that is sought in the application. This license does not allow the licensee to engage in or carry on the business of a Precious Metals or Stones Dealer as any other business, in any other location or in any other town or city. The Chief of Police may revoke such license for cause which shall include, but is not limited to, failure to comply with any requirements for licensure specified by the East Windsor Police Department at the time of issuance. Such record and the place where such business is carried on and all articles of property therein may be examined at all times by any East Windsor Police Officer. Any officer who performs such an examination may require any employee on the premises to provide proof of the employee's identity.

You may not purchase any property from a minor unless such minor is accompanied by a parent or guardian and the identification of such parent or guardian should be photocopied or an image of the identification should be scanned and retained in your records.

A licensee may only pay for property received by check or money order, and no cash shall be transferred to either party in the course of a transaction. A licensee that pays cash or cashes a check or money order shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor. No licensee may advertise or purport that he or she will pay for property received with cash.

At the time of making a purchase, the licensee shall deliver to the person selling property a receipt containing a description of the property purchased, the price paid for the property and the name and address of the purchaser.

A Precious Metals or Stones Dealer License is in effect for one year from the date it is issued. It does not allow you to engage in the business of a Pawnbroker or Secondhand dealer, as defined under the Connecticut General Statutes unless so licensed. A licensee seeking renewal of such license shall file an application for renewal at least sixty days before the expiration of such license. The license is not transferable. Any person who willfully engages in the business of a Precious Metals or Stones Dealer, unless licensed according to law, or after notice that his or her license has been suspended or revoked, shall be guilty of a class D felony. Any person who violates any provision of Connecticut General Statutes or the Requirements of the East Windsor Police Department, for which no other penalty is provided, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars.
